BULL & STEIN®

Early in his existence man transformed the gifts of nature and created objects in his own image. His imagination and creativity led him to shape vases and clay pots, he decorated his Temples and Churches with bronze statues and he used glass jewels ornaments to seduce.

All over the world, on the banks of the Tigris and Euphrates, from the Nile through China and the Indies, the techniques have improved and brought unique masterpieces to life. This know-how has been passed from generation to generation down to the present day.

Today, artists still shape hand-blown glass artwork, craftsmen hand-shape and polish BULL & STEIN bronze apples, cultivating a thousand-year old tradition. The mere heat of their hands combined with delicate moves of a caress reshape the clay into unique ceramic sculptures.

BULL & STEIN sustains this heritage, travelling the world, searching for craftsmen who perpetuate traditional, ancestral techniques: Artists able to express feelings that reach the heart of the child in us – Masters in their field, who look for beauty and purity that can touch the soul and set our senses in motion – Sculptors who leave the impress of their fingers on their artwork, such a signature – making it unique.

BULL & STEIN calls on and commissions the best factories in Brasil, Portugal, India and Hungary – centres of traditional craftsmanship.

BULL&STEIN is unique:

- Unique like „Transparencies“, hand-blown glass apple-shaped sculptures made up of sand
 - Singular like clay and organic pigments combining and becoming giant „fruits céramiques“
 - Inimitable like tin and copper bringing life to timeless „cast bronze“, impressive apple-shaped bronze sculptures

Welcome to BULL & STEIN's world

CAST BRONZE

dalla sua esistenza, l'uomo trasforma i doni della natura e crea oggetti sua immagine. La fantasia e la creatività lo spingono a farne urne e vasi terra cotta, statue in bronzo per ornare templi e sarcofagi, gioielli per durre e impreziosire il suo corpo. Ai quattro angoli della Terra, dalle rive Tigri e dell'Eufrate al Nilo, passando per la Cina e le Indie, le tecniche perfezionano per dare vita a delle vere opere d'arte. Questo sapere passa generazione in generazione per arrivare fino a noi. Ancora oggi esistono arti che lavorano il vetro soffiato e artigiani che patinano a mano le mele in bronzo BULL & STEIN nel rispetto della tradizione delle campane per prime chiese cristiane in India. Il calore delle loro mani, combinato a i movimenti delicati come una carezza, trasforma l'argilla in sculture in ramica eccezionali, tutte diverse, inimitabili.

BULL&STEIN tramanda questo patrimonio andando alla ricerca nel mondo di quegli artigiani che fanno rivivere queste tecniche arcaiche. Artisti capaci di esprimere i sentimenti che toccano i cuori più puri. Artusti che ricercano la bellezza e la purezza che saprà far vibrare le corde dell'anima. Scultori che lasciano l'impronta delle dita, come una firma, sulle loro opere per renderle uniche. BULL&STEIN si rivolge ai migliori ateliers del Brasile, India, Vietnam e Ungheria, veri e proprio centri di origine della creazione artistica.

New collection: Transparencies

BULL & STEIN is proud to present its new collection of glass apples „Transparencies“ – sparkling and bright, hand-blown, apple shaped sculptures. In her latest creation, the Brazilian artist, Lisa Pappon, has inspired herself from the beauty and magic of a glacial universe, fairylike and extraterrestrial.

The craquelure technique gives the object its icy and crystal-like aspect. The apple-shaped „Transparencies“ artwork reflects the ambient light, like a Diamond, so delicate and fragile, we admire and handle it like the most precious jewel on Earth – fearing that it could melt and disappear before our eyes.

Unique and eternal, like a gem.

Nueva colección « Transparencias »

Esculpidas en un escriño helado, BULL & STEIN presenta «transparencias», sus nuevas esculturas de manzanas de vidrio soplado. Para su última creación, la diseñadora brasileña Lisa Pappon se inspira en un mundo glacial y fabuloso. Creadas para la eternidad, las manzanas de cristal parecen modeladas por una helada tempestad de nieve. Como diamantes raros, tienen una elegancia glacial.

Tan puras que reflejan todos los rayos de luz, tan delicadas y frágiles entre nuestras manos, parecen fundirse bajo nuestros ojos.

Como la piedra más preciosa, son el espejo de la eternidad.

Nouvelle collection « Transparences »

Figées dans leurs écrins gelés, cristallines et étincelantes, BULL & STEIN présente ses nouvelles pommes sculptures en verre soufflé «transparences». Pour sa dernière création, la designer brésilienne Lisa Pappon s'est inspirée d'un univers glacial, extraterrestre et féérique.

Imaginées pour l'éternité, les pommes semblent avoir été façonnées par le blizzard qui les a délicieusement craquelés. Tels des diamants rares, elles sont sublimées par cette élégance glaciale. Si pures qu'on peut y voir à travers, les pommes « transparences » reflètent toute la lumière autour. Si délicates et fragiles dans nos mains, on les regarde pour la première fois avec nostalgie, craignant qu'elles ne fondent sous nos yeux.

Comme une belle pierre précieuse elle est un miroir d'éternité.

Nuova collezione « Transparence »

Scolpite in uno scrigno gelato, cristalline e scintillanti, BULL & STEIN presenta «transparence», le sue nuove sculture di mela in vetro soffiato. Per la sua ultima creazione, la designer brasiliana Lisa Pappon si è ispirata ad un universo glaciale, extraterrestre e fiabesco.

Pensate per l'eternità, le mele sembrano essere state forgiate da una gelida tempesta di neve. Come diamanti rari, sono sublimate da questa eleganza glaciale.

Così pure che ci si può vedere attraverso, le mele « transparence » riflettono tutta la luce intorno. Così delicate e fragili tra le mani, le guardiamo per la prima volta nostalgicamente, per la paura che si sciolgano sotto i nostri occhi.

Come la più bella delle pietre preziose sono uno specchio d'eternità.

unique handmade fruit sculptures

BULL & STEIN, a Brazilian-German collaboration, was founded in São Paulo by Cynthia Stein and Marcus Bull in 2000. The company has been celebrating a decade of business success in manufacturing and distribution of premium quality ceramic sculptures worldwide. Shortly after BULL & STEIN's global launch, the famous Brazilian artist and designer Lisa Pappon joined the company and developed her extravagant collection of ceramic apple sculptures exclusively for BULL & STEIN. The Brazilian-born founder Marcus Bull then moved the company's headquarters to Germany, where Marcus had been working as Director of Bildhauerwerkstatt Berlin, a world famous sculpture workshop in Berlin.

Marcus's love and passion for art and sculpture is perfectly matched with Lisa Pappon's eternal quest for new forms, techniques and finishes. Soon after the introduction, the creative team of BULL & STEIN has successfully introduced an exotic and outstanding collection to world markets. BULL & STEIN is focused on the delivery of outstanding concepts with the world's most famous international decorators, architects and artists. Today BULL & STEIN manufactures its unique handcrafted apple sculptures in Europe and Asia.
