it's all about art

Our Story

Since 1999, CowParade has brought art to the streets of over 90 cities, uniting communities through life-size cow sculptures painted by 10,000+ artists worldwide. It's the world's largest public art event—and now, you can own a piece of it.

CowParade replicas are flawless miniatures of the most beloved designs from around the globe. Each figurine is crafted in polyresin or ceramic, hand-painted or detailed with custom decals, and available in sizes from XL to small.

Each collectible comes boxed with an artist and event card. New designs are added regularly; older models are retired to keep the collection fresh and exclusive.

We also create custom designs for corporate gifting and work with emerging artists to expand the herd.

The Craft - The Art of Community

Each figurine is sculpted from a white stoneware base (80% natural materials), hand-finished, and painted to mirror the original masterpiece.

Exceptional designs use custom decals. Finished cows are lacquered for protection but should be kept out of direct sunlight to preserve color. The tiny vent hole you may notice allows air to escape during the final drying process, preventing cracking.

Each CowParade piece is more than decoration, it's a story, a celebration, and a spark of joy in resin or ceramic.

At CowParade International, our mission is to make art move, starring a herd of cows with unique stories to tell.

Since our inception in 1999, we've turned the streets into a canvas for creativity, captivating audiences worldwide. With over 10.000 artists and more than 8.000 bovine masterpieces, we have become the world's largest public art event.

Our philosophy combines art with social responsibility, with proceeds from our life-sized cows supporting charitable causes. Our pieces, carefully selected and hand-painted, bring this artistic magic into your home, with new designs introduced all the time. Over the years we have expanded the source of design to include budding new artists, sharing opportunity everywhere.
